

AccreditStation

Get Your Accreditation on the Right Track

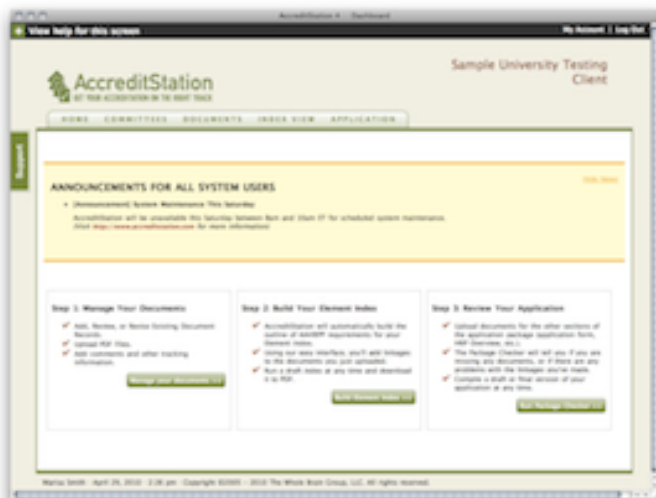

the whole brain group

AccreditStation® is like TurboTax for AAHRPP Accreditation

Putting your AAHRPP application together can be a frustrating process. Instead of focusing on the content of your application, you wind up spending hours chasing paper and becoming an Adobe Acrobat expert so you can get everything put together the way AAHRPP wants it.

AccreditStation helps you get accredited with less hassle...

- ✓ Access AccreditStation online with a web browser
- ✓ Gather all of your supporting documentation in one central location for input by your team
- ✓ Match your documents up to the AAHRPP requirements
- ✓ Check for errors and omissions
- ✓ Compile everything automatically for electronic submission...in less than 90 seconds!

... and gives you more time to focus on your application content!

- ✓ Increase Efficiency: AccreditStation handles the technical details of assembling, bookmarking, indexing, and paginating your PDF application package, freeing you to focus your expertise and resources on matching your policies and procedures to AAHRPP accreditation standards.
- ✓ Save Time: Use AccreditStation to make last-minute changes to your PDF application package. Update an element linkage, add a new document, or revise an existing one. Then reassemble your package with a click of your mouse.
- ✓ Save Money: The time and paper you save with AccreditStation translates into thousands of dollars, multiplying several times over during the course of a multi-year accreditation project.

What people are saying about AccreditStation....

Accreditation Coordinator
Spectrum Health

"I love how you can run/compile your application at anytime to see what the package is looking like. It's a great way to gauge and track progress on the project. My time and effort have been significantly streamlined with this tool."

"When we add up the time, effort, and paper saved, AccreditStation was worth every penny."

Accreditation Coordinator
McLean Hospital

Accreditation Coordinator
Medical Center

"AccreditStation saved us valuable time as we prepared for the AAHRPP accreditation process. Time we'd have spent compiling numerous documents was used to review and improve our human research protection program."

"After submitting [applications] to two accreditation bodies within 2 years, having software that takes out the problem of tracking different versions of a document is a big help."
